

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Accounts Payable Clerk

CLOSING DATE EXTENDED

Established in 1994, the Independent First Nations are twelve (12) diverse and distinct communities comprised of three original peoples: the Anishinawbek, the Onkwehonwe and the Inninuwig in Ontario. Politically, the Independent First Nations (IFN) communities asserted their independence from existing Political Territorial Organizations (PTO's) and affirmed their right to be self-determining, self-governing First Nations that represent their community's interests at the local, regional, national level based on Indigenous and treaty rights. Collectively, the combined population of the IFN communities is over 30,000 members. We are unique politically, economically, socially, culturally, and geographically with territories spanning across Ontario in the East, South, West, and North.

The IFN is currently seeking a dedicated, discreet, and dependable professional for the newly created position of Accounts Payable Clerk. Under the direction of the IFN Executive Administrative Committee and the combined oversight of the IFN Director of Health and Director of Intergovernmental Affairs, the Accounts Payable Clerk's primary responsible to ensure effective, efficient, and accurate recording, payment and storing of IFN vendor transactions.
