

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Senior Child Welfare Advisor

CLOSING DATE EXTENDED

Established in 1994, the Independent First Nations are twelve (12) diverse and distinct communities comprised of three original peoples: the Anishinawbek, the Onkwehonwe and the Inninuwig in Ontario. Politically, the Independent First Nations (IFN) communities asserted their independence from existing Political Territorial Organizations (PTO's) and affirmed their right to be self-determining, self-governing First Nations that represent their community's interests at the local, regional, national level based on Indigenous and treaty rights. Collectively, the combined population of the IFN communities is over 30,000 members. We are unique politically, economically, socially, culturally, and geographically with territories spanning across Ontario in the East, South, West and North.

The IFN is currently seeking an experienced, passionate individual for the newly created position of Senior Child Welfare Advisor. Under the direction of the IFN Executive Administrative Committee and the oversight of the IFN Director of Intergovernmental Affairs, the Senior Child Welfare Advisor will be responsible to ensure First Nations maintain jurisdiction and their inherent responsibility to care for their children and youth. This includes a review of current issues impacting First Nation communities such as Federal and Provincial legislation, policies, and practices.
