FISH HARVESTERS NEEDED

As part of the Together with Giigoonyag initiative, the Fisheries Assessment Program will be coordinating the deployment of 9 acoustic telemetry receivers in Lake Huron during the week of August 8-12.

We are looking to hire a SON fish harvester with a TUG to aid us for $2450/day for up to 3 days. Duties will include dropping individual receivers weighed down by cement blocks (90-130lbs) into pre-determined locations approximately 22km apart (Red dots circled in yellow below).

If you are interested in deploying receivers please notify the Fisheries Assessment Program for consideration. We will be selecting one interested individual at random next week. Miigwetch!

INDEX NETTING CONTRACT

As part of the Together with Giigoonyag initiative, we will be conducting index netting around Tobermory with Parks Canada starting the first week of August.

This work is expected to continue in the future and will provide opportunities for SON fish harvesters in years to come. In total, we anticipate 7 days of work. Each day 5 index nets will be set (approx. 1600 feet each). Predetermined locations and their GPS coordinates can be found on the following 2 pages.

Parks Canada will supply the nets and equipment that will be required to conduct this work.

We are seeking to hire interested SON fish harvesters to help us with this work at a rate of $1750/day. If you are interested, please reach out to Ryan Lauzon (519-375-1012) by July 30th. We encourage interest from tug operators. Miigwetch!

ACOUSTIC RECEIVER LOCATIONS

One component of the Bima'azh project, which aims to track fine-scale movements of spawning lake whitefish, is acoustic telemetry. An acoustic telemetry system consists of two main components: transmitters and receivers. Transmitters are electronic tags that broadcast a series of "pings" (sound pulses) into the surrounding water. These tags are surgically implanted into fish of interest. Listening stations (receivers) are placed on the bottom of the lake at various locations to "listen" for tagged fish as they swim by. Similar to efforts last year, 11 receivers have been redeployed along the Port Elgin Shoal.

There is the potential that these receivers may become caught in fishing gear. Receivers positioned in shallow nearshore areas have been identified with net markers. To avoid this kind of interference, we are also providing you with the locations of all currently installed receivers along the shoal.

For more information please contact: Ryan Lauzon (519-375-1012)

The photo below shows the construction site for the new Water Treatment Plant from the waterside perspective. It was taken in May 2022 before the leaves on the trees came out. The barge in the water is the crew that was drilling the test wells. Those who are familiar with the shoreline will recognise the location as marked by the large "pudding stones" visible on the shore and the clay bank above them.

CHIPPEWAS OF NAWASH FAMILY PANDEMIC PLANNING GUIDE JULY 2022 FILL OUT AND POST ON FRIDGE

Social Services at Nawash has designed a Family Emergency Health Guide to help prepare families during the this pandemic. The intention of this guide is to have every household think about their individual pandemic plans.

- By filling out this document, you are creating a plan that can help lessen the stress and impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on your household.
- The answers will also assist emergency services should they be called to your home.
- Please fill out this form and post on your home fridge so if emergency services are called they can easily refer to this plan.

If you have questions or require assistance with this planning guide, please contact Amy Ingram 519-534-3753 | clientsupport@nawashfn.ca
