About UNDRIP and the Action Plan

The United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples (herein referred to as the Declaration) is a document made up of 46 articles that outline, "the minimum standards to protect the rights of Indigenous peoples and to contribute to their survival, dignity and well-being," (Article 43 of the Declaration).

On June 21, 2021, Canada passed the United Nations Declaration Act (herein referred to as the Act) which is intended to ensure that Canadian laws are in compliance with the Declaration. This Act required the federal government to develop an Action Plan in cooperation with First Nations, by June 21, 2023. On March 22, 2023, Canada released its Draft Action Plan and began Phase 2 of engagement.

If you wish to know more about the Declaration and how Canada is attempting to implement it, visit the webpage: <https://www.nawash.ca/undrip/>

If you wish to know more about Canada's Draft Action Plan, read it here:

The purpose of this survey is to gather priorities and feedback from the Chippewas of Nawash Unceded First Nation community. The survey input from community members like yourself will be compiled into written reports for Chief and Council, the Chippewas of Nawash Unceded First Nation community, and for submissions to the Department of Justice. Thank you for sharing your thoughts and reflections. We welcome any and all input on the following questions. The following questions are related to themes and topics from Canada's Draft Action Plan.

Fill out the survey for a chance to win a prize worth $100!

The survey deadline is May 8, 2023.

If you have any questions, technical issues, or would like to request a paper copy of the survey, please contact Olivia Shotyk at olivia.shotyk@sharedvaluesolutions.com
