

Ralph Akiwenzie Scholarship

Terms of Reference and Guidelines

OVERVIEW

This scholarship is named for former Chief Ralph Akiwenzie, he was an educator and a leader. Ralph Akiwenzie dedicated his life to the community of Neyaashiinigiing, and preserving the Ojibway language.

You are eligible if the following applies to you:

- You are a Band member of Chippewas of Nawash. Please provide a copy of your status card, both sides.
- You have met the college and/or university entry requirements, and are applying to any Canadian college or university, and are working towards your diploma, undergraduate degree, Master's, PhD or Native Language Course/Diploma.

The scholarship award can be up to $3,000 or 80% of the costs, whichever is less, and is renewable annually, based on reasonable progress toward the completion of your program of study. You MUST apply each year. If you were a successful candidate in the past, you must submit your receipt(s) with your application when you re-apply.

PREPARING YOUR APPLICATION : Provide as much detail as possible on the application, and remember that the one-page essay attachment is crucial if you are to be considered for a Ralph Akiwenzie Scholarship. Those judging your application can only know you through the information you provide to them. Ensure you have all required information and attachments by reviewing the application checklist. You are welcome to send photographs or additional certificates or other information if you wish; however you must understand that they cannot be returned to you.

Gather all of the required attachments and send together as one application package rather than separately, making sure to include all of the following:
