Community Builder Grant

We're looking for nominees!

We're looking for nominees for our 2024 Community Builder Grant!

June is National Indigenous History Month. Colliers Project Leaders is celebrating Indigenous youth through our Community Builder Grant.

This program will award three Indigenous youths $5,000 each to use towards their education, a community building project or a new business idea.

We need your help! Tell us about the remarkable individuals in your network with the potential to inspire and bring about meaningful change. By passing this opportunity along or nominating them, you can play a vital role in recognizing contributions they've made to their communities and support their future endeavors.

The nomination period is open for the month of June. A panel of Indigenous leaders from across Canada will review the nominations and select the grant recipients.

Learn more about the grant on our Community Builder Grant webpage and Nomination Form.

We strongly encourage you to share this opportunity with your colleagues, friends and community members who might also know deserving individuals. Together, we can create a network of support and empower Indigenous youth leaders to continue their incredible work!
